

Georgian

DUAL CREDIT CHECKLIST

Course Name:	Conflict Resolution
Course Number:	GNED2005
Course Level (i.e. first semester, second semester):	any
Program Name(s):	General Education credits can be applied to many programs.
What other programs have this course as part of the curriculum?	NA
Course is a General Education Course (Yes or No)	Yes
If this is a program specific course, how does it link into the program? For eg. Does it provide an overview to the subject area?	NA
Is there a hands-on component to the course? Please elaborate	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Students will be provided with optional hands-on activities that can be added to their portfolio of learning (eg. visual representations of conflict, dioramas of alternative dispute resolutions)
Is there a textbook used with the course? If so, how much reading is required in the course?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> There is a text for the course, students should be prepared to read 20 minutes to 1 hour per week
What are the required assignments within this course? (eg. essays, group discussion, portfolio etc.)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> In-class case studies involving group discussion (working through conflict scenarios) Portfolio of learning which demonstrates how the student's understanding of conflict has evolved through the course (journals, visuals and case study reflections)
What special resources, materials or teaching environment are required in order to run this course for dual credit students?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Classroom will be very collaborative Opportunities will be provided to work through resolving common conflicts in work, school and family settings Possible field trip and guest speakers to explore alternative forms of mediation
What post-secondary opportunities are associated with this course?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Police Foundations Child and Youth Care Business Human Resources Addictions Treatment and Prevention Community and Social Justice Early Childhood Education
