

Georgian

DUAL CREDIT CHECKLIST

Course Name:	Construction Practices
Course Number:	CART1013
Course Level (i.e. first semester, second semester):	Second semester
Program Name(s):	Carpentry Techniques
What other programs have this course as part of the curriculum?	Carpentry Apprenticeship
Course is a General Education Course (Yes or No)	No
If this is a program specific course, how does it link into the program? For eg. Does it provide an overview to the subject area?	This course is specific to the Carpentry programs. It will provide students the basic fundamentals of construction safety, environment, and entry level skills along with the ability to read drawings and learn measurement techniques.
Is there a hands-on component to the course? Please elaborate	A large portion is hands on as students will be learning the safety and skills needed to operate woodworking equipment in the shop. Students will also be required to construct projects throughout the class.
Is there a textbook used with the course? If so, how much reading is required in the course?	Yes. Reading required is dependent on retention during class. Thirty minute to an hour of reading after each class would be beneficial for students.
What are the required assignments within this course? (eg. essays, group discussion, portfolio etc.)	Workbook assignments, test, construction projects
What special resources, materials or teaching environment are required in order to run this course for dual credit students?
What post-secondary opportunities are associated with this course?	-Guidance towards specific post-secondary programs -knowledge and skills needed to be successful -resume building for job placement if wanting an apprenticeship