Course Description

Sociology is the study of human society and social interactions. Using sociological concepts and perspectives, students analyze issues relating to inequalities, the family, education, religion, politics, the economy, population trends, and social change. By applying sociological concepts to various aspects of Canadian and global societies, students develop a deeper understanding of how people are affected by the society in which they live.

Equivalent(s) Courses (One-Way)

SOC 5111 - Sociology 2

SOC 9102 - Introduction To Sociology 2

General Education Themes

The following themes will be used to provide direction to colleges in the development and identification of courses that are designed to fulfill the General Education requirement for programs of instruction:

Social and Cultural Understanding

Course Content

- Sociological perspectives
- Racial, ethnic, gender, and global inequality
- Social institutions: the family, education, religion, mass media, and political/economic systems
- Population trends
- Social movements and change

Course Evaluation

The passing grade for this course is 50% unless otherwise noted below. The evaluation is comprised of:

- Tests 60%
- Assignments 40%

Tests/examinations/assignments must be written/submitted at the time specified. Requests for adjustments to that schedule must be made before the test/exam/assignment date to the faculty member. Failure to do so will result in a mark of "0", unless an illness/emergency can be proven with appropriate documentation at no cost to the College.

The passing grade for all courses is 50%, or letter grade of P (Pass) or S (Satisfactory) unless otherwise noted below. The passing weighted average for promotion through each semester of a program is 60% and is a requirement to graduate.
